Background Information The Secretary of Energy established the DOE Office of the Ombudsman Program (the "Program") in March 2012. The Program records concern the development, administration, and evaluation of the Program, and the Program serves as an independent, confidential, informal, and neutral conflict resolution practitioner for DOE Federal employees. The Program maintains communications with those seeking assistance through the Program and holds those communications in the strictest confidence. Program officials must take all reasonable steps to safeguard the anonymity and confidentiality of DOE employees seeking assistance or otherwise associated with the Program's conflict resolution efforts. Program safeguards noted herein are in accordance with Title 5 U.S.C. Section 571-584 and the International Ombudsman Association standards. This includes protecting the identity of individuals contacting the Program and protecting the information provided in confidence that is not disclosed.

Ombudsman Working Case Files

Disposition Authority Number DAA-0434-2016-0007-0002

Includes records pertaining to the identification and information involving concerns, disputes, and issues presented to the DOE Ombudsman Program (the "Program"), such as documentation summarizing tasks used to informally track concerns, disputes and issues, and those that aide in the development of solutions or resolutions. The tasks relate to confidential discussions and information protected from access, review or inspection other than by officials of the DOE Office of the Ombudsman. The records and information are collected anonymously and retained temporarily only in efforts to resolve concerns, disputes, and issues presented to the Program. The records may include, but are not limited to, non-attributed issue summaries, dispute resolution communications, outreach efforts, work product notes of the neutral parties or non-party participants, summaries of descriptive statistics, and executive overviews.
