DESCRIPTION OF RECORDS

SAFE WORK PERMITS are used to designate the approval for employees to work on a potentially hazardous job or in a potentially hazardous area. They contain the job description, instructions to workers, the protective clothing and equipment required. They include the names of the workers, approval signatures of responsible supervision, and the date(s) the work is done.

RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

Destroy 75 years after the date of the permit.

Rationale. See attached correspondence. 75 years reflects the same retention as personnel and training records, with which these records need to be compatible. This request has been coordinated with Departmental elements, all of whom concurred.

ID# 26
DESCRIPTION OF RECORDS

VISITOR ACCESS CONTROL RECORDS, which are registration cards or similar records, document admission of visitors to administrative or restricted areas, or installations or facilities where exposure to radiation could occur.

RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

75

Destroy 75 years after date of document.

Rationale. See attached correspondence

This request has been coordinated with Departmental elements, all of whom have concurred.

ID #27
DESCRIPTION OF RECORDS

CORRESPONDENCE FILES, consisting of letters, memoranda, messages, studies, reports, forms, and other data documenting or implementing plans, policies, procedures, accomplishments, opinions, and decisions pertaining to DOE program and staff activities, or pertaining to internal administration or operations.

a. Files documenting the development of plans and policies pertaining to the mission, program, or functions for which the concerned division, office, field office, laboratory, or contractor has primary responsibility; opinions and decisions of an important policy or precedent nature; and summary data and reports reflecting its overall accomplishments. (These files will generally be found in the offices of principal staff of field offices and contractors.)

Withdrawn

Permanent. Offer to NARA after 25 years, in blocks of 5 years.

b. Files of an operational nature documenting implementation of the clearly established mission, programs, policies, and procedures for which the division, office, field office, or contractor has primary responsibility, provided that the documentation in a. above is preserved.

Destroy 15 years after the date of the files.
c. Files documenting transactions of a routine character, generally recurring type, which relate to local performance of particular transactions of a mission, program, or activity, and which essentially are summarized or duplicated in records described in b. above, maintained at a higher organizational level.

d. Files pertaining to internal administration and operations, and informational copies of correspondence, forms, publications, reports, and other issuances relating to temporary needs and routine nonmission or nonprogram responsibilities.

e. Acknowledgments and transmittals of inquiries and requests that have been referred elsewhere for reply; routing requests for information and replies thereto; anonymous letters, letters of commendation, complaint, criticism, and suggestions and replies thereto, exclusive of those leading to investigative or administration action and those incorporated in individual personnel files.

Rationale. See attached correspondence. This request is based on the finding aids described on the attachment. It has been coordinated with Departmental elements, all of whom concurred.
