Schedule Number: NC1-434-78-01

All items in this schedule are inactive. Items are either obsolete or have been superseded by newer NARA approved records schedules.

Description:

NC1-434-78-01 was created to allow the then newly formed Department of Energy to continue using the disposition authorities for the agencies transferred into the Department. This allowed DOE to meet the letter of the law requiring records to be rescheduled within a limited period of time. All of the schedules listed in NC1-434-78-01 approved by the Archivist of the United States since May 13, 1973 can be found within their respective record groups (see below) in the Records Control Schedules Repository (<https://www.archives.gov/records-mgmt/rcs>). These schedules citing their respective authority numbers would have been used to disposition records.
