FPMR (41 CFR) 101-11.4

The records are arranged according to an NIH-prepared finding scheme and subject index, copies of which are included in Box 52. Within the nineteen categories of records established by this scheme, individual file folders are arranged sequentially by type of committee activity. Accompanying master lists describe individual documents included in each folder. The records principally include correspondence and memorandums between committee members, particularly Drs. Albert B. Sabin and Jonas E. Salk, and Dr. William H. Scheele, Director of the Committee, technical reports, laboratory studies, medical facility investigatory surveys, and agenda and minutes of committee meetings.

DISPOSITION: PERMANENT--TRANSFER TO THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES IN FY 1995

Volume--11 cubic feet
Closed series

For intramural reports of the NIH, the records are arranged chronologically and thereunder by individual Institute, division, bureau, or laboratory in alphabetical order. For records of the Research and Planning Council, the annual reports are arranged chronologically for the years 1949 to 1952. The records consist chiefly of reports and evaluations of the progress of NIH research programs and projects. Also included are research proposals, budgets, organizational charts and statistical tables, and correspondence, memorandums, and congressional testimony of the Surgeon General of the United States.
