Subject: Request for Records Disposition Authority

During our telephone conversation on May 6, 1977, the following items were discussed:

- 1) The Intra Department Council on Indian Affairs is no longer a function of the Office of Native American Programs therefore, those conference and committee records are not included in the general subject file.
- 2) No formal annual reports are required from this office. Briefing documents and summary of activities for OMB and Congress are prepared in response to specific questions on an ad hoc basis. Therefore, item 6 is omitted from the schedule.
- 3) The annual volume of final reports for grants is minimal as most of the grants are continuation of funding. Final contract reports have an estimated annual volume of 1 cubic foot.

Director
Records Disposition Division

Disposition schedule NC1-439-77-3 consists of records of the Office of Native American Programs of the Office of Human Development (DHEW). Our comments on several items follow.

Item 1. The general subject file is in ~~two~~ parts to provide for permanent retention of guidelines and issuances relating to ONAP policies and disposal of the remainder of the file.

Item 5. Records are recommended for disposal because the office of record is the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Human Development. The schedule for this office has not yet been submitted to NARS.

The Office of Native American Programs exists to support the special concerns of American Indians, Alaskan Native$, and Hawaiian Natives. The principal means of support is funding through grants. As indicated in the attached letter of May 12, 1977, final reports are prepared for grants and total approximately one cubic foot annually.

Permanent retention of issuances and guidelines only seems appropriate and sufficient for purposes of archival research. The scope and functions of ONAP are, of course, comparatively limited. Federal programs of greater impact on native American interests are probably those of the larger agencies and departments. If NNE prefers permanent retention of the final reports, we can change the disposition instructions to provide for eventual accessioning.

We recommend approval of this disposition schedule.
