– HCIE

Item 1 AHRQ Healthcare Innovations Exchange (HCIE)

The AHRQ Health Care Innovations Exchange (HCIE) system is a database and public website that provides information on health care delivery innovations and quality tools aimed at improving quality or reducing disparities. The content is developed jointly by AHRQ contractors and the innovator(s) responsible for each innovation.

(Note: HCIE web content is scheduled under the AHRQ web schedule, N1-510-09-12.)

- a) Master file: HCIE contains information on innovations and quality tools including general descriptive information, the innovator and contact information, and funding organization. Innovations may also include comments submitted by the public.

Disposition: TEMPORARY. Cut off at the end of the calendar year in which information becomes inactive. Delete or destroy 5 years after cutoff or whenever no longer needed for business purposes, whichever is later.
