Background Information

The Office of Clinical and Preventive Services (OCPS) is responsible for national health professional recruitment, health program implementation, risk management, emergency services, and management of several grant programs for the Indian Health Service (IHS). It includes the following divisions: Behavioral Health, Diabetes Treatment and Prevention, Nursing, Oral Health, Clinical and Community Services, and the Improving Patient Care Program.

The records profiled in this schedule are created to meet the medical staff credentialing and privileging standards of a nationally recognized accrediting/certifying body such as the Joint Commission (TJC), the American Association for Ambulatory Health Care (AAHC), or the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). Credentialing is the process of assessing and confirming the qualifications of a health care practitioner's background and credentials. It is a process that includes collecting and verifying information about a practitioner. Privileging is the process that health care organizations employ to authorize practitioners to provide specific services to their patients. The facility's credentials committee makes recommendations pertaining to the practitioner's clinical privileges and/or medical staff membership. Authority to grant clinical and/or medical staff membership is the domain of the facility's governing body.
