The purpose of this request is to add a new record description to Section 12, "Military Personnel Records", of M5212.12, Paperwork Management Manual.

The addition is needed, because the Coast Guard (CG) keeps Family Advocacy Program records which consist of case files of suspected and confirmed cases of family member abuse or neglect. These records are not covered in our existing Records Disposition Schedule.

The records are located at CG Headquarters (CGHQ) and Field Offices. CGHQ is considered the office of primary responsibility for these records. The case file (paper record) is initiated at the members duty station and transferred to new commands as the military member is transferred. The case file is sent to CGHQ when the member leaves the service or upon closure of the case. CGHQ uses the records for the identification, treatment, and monitoring of domestic violence cases, research studies and statistical data.
