Internal agency concurrences will be provided No

Background Information Federal Air Marshals, designated as International Team Leaders, are required by Office of Law Enforcement/Federal Air Marshal Service Policy 3410 to complete International Team Leader Checklists for each international mission he or she leads. Each checklist documents the names of all the Federal Air Marshals assigned to that team, and each certifies that he or she has reviewed all applicable policies and guidance, pre-deployment procedures and briefings. Upon return from an international mission, the international Team Leader signs to confirm applicable location departure procedures have been followed. Any deviation from TSA, Office of Law Enforcement/Federal Air Marshal Service, standard operating procedures are noted on separate sheets of paper and attached to the checklists.
