1100 – HUMAN RESOURCES

Background: The Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), Public Law 103-3, grants family and temporary medical leave under certain circumstances. FMLA entitles eligible employees of covered employers to take unpaid, job-protected leave for specified family and medical reasons with continuation of group health insurance coverage under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had not taken leave. Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 2616, Subpart E, Record-keeping Requirements, § 825.500, provides that employers must keep records for no-less-than three (3) years. It also offers that records may be maintained and preserved on microfilm, or other basic source document of an automated data processing memory, consistent with specific provisions, including adequate protection, available viewing equipment, and clear and identifiable reproductions. Records kept in computer form must be made available for transcription or copying.

FMLA Program: Comprises a variety of agency program management and employee documentation created and collected, and maintained by the agency in order to track requests and monitor approvals for agency compliance, sharing and reporting among other Federal oversight authorities and agencies, as appropriate and consistent with the provisions of the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

Item 1 FMLA Program Files – Includes agency communications, statistics, reports, memoranda, and copies of related policy and guidance, as well as similar records created or collected in support of program management.

Disposition Temporary Cut off annually Destroy/delete 3 years after cutoff or when superseded, as appropriate.

Item 2 FMLA Employee Case Files – Includes records pertaining to agency approvals and monitoring associated with individual employee requests covered under the FMLA provisions, such as the employee applications, medical documentation, copies of leave applications and personnel actions, and similar records containing employee identifying data (e.g., payroll, notices, benefits and disputes) necessary to complete and process FMLA actions.

Disposition Temporary Cut off when case is closed Destroy/delete 3 year after cutoff.
