Headquarters Offices
Management Directorate

The disposition of Management Directives (MD) and Delegations of Authority (DA) covered in this schedule pertains to the Management Directives program under the authority of the Undersecretary for Management which is the office of record.

Unless otherwise noted, these disposition instructions are media neutral, they apply regardless of the media or format of the records.

1. Management Directives (MD)

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) MDs for DHS programs internal policy. The authority to operate DHS programs is provided in MDs, which are drafted by individual program offices and distributed DHS-wide for comment. After the Under Secretary for Management approves the MDs, they are published on the DHS intranet (Note. DHS components that issue component-specific directives should refer to that agency's retention policies and procedures )

The file for each MD and its subsequent version of each directive will include the approved MD, signature/approval documents, comments, background material, and as applicable, related manual and/or forms

PERMANENT. Cut off when superseded or cancelled. Transfer to NARA 5 years after cutoff Agency will maintain & transfer electronic records according to NARA transfer guidance and regulations

2. Delegations of Authority (DA)

DAs specify who is authorized to act on behalf of the Secretary or other DHS officials for specific purposes Individuals are identified by title or position, not by name

• Executive Level Delegation

Executive Level Delegations files containing the approved delegation, comments and background material Executive Level Delegations are processed through the Office of the General Counsel and forwarded to the Executive Secretariat for signature

• Other DHS Delegations

The delegations record copy contains the approved delegations, comments and all background material Delegations at the component level or below are not processed through the Executive Secretariat

Disposition: PERMANENT. Cut off when superseded or cancelled. Transfer to NARA 5 years after cutoff. Agency will maintain & transfer electronic records according to NARA transfer guidance and regulations
