General Counsel, Office of the

The General Counsel is the chief legal advisor of the Department. He or she determines the policy and directs the actions of the Office of General Counsel, the Offices of Regional Counsel and other DHS legal offices.

The General Counsel and his staff ensures that DHS activities comply with all legal requirements and integrates the attorneys and staff throughout the Department into a cohesive, full-service legal team.

- Plans, directs, and executes all legal activities within the DHS nationwide to ensure full and legally sound implementation of DHS' statutory responsibilities. Assures proper legal and policy support for the missions of DHS.
- Serves as the chief legal advisor to the Secretary, the Deputy Secretary, and other senior agency officials in developing issuing DHS policies and regulations.
- Provides overall guidance and direction to all components of the OGC. Directs and coordinates the conduct of legal and policy assistance activities within DHS field jurisdictions and establishes reporting relationships of subordinate legal offices in the Department. Issues directives and instructions to govern execution of the functions of these offices and evaluates their performance by review and inspection.

Unless otherwise noted, all disposition instructions are media neutral; they apply regardless of the media or format of the records.
