Background Information U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is the government agency that oversees lawful immigration to the United States. USCIS processes applications, petitions, and requests pursuant to the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and issues documentation to applicants, petitioners, and requestors to reflect their immigration status and eligibility to travel, work, and live in the United States, as well as their status as derivative or naturalized United States citizens.

Form I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status, is filed by certain non-immigrants to (these requirements are subject to revision at any time by USCIS):

- apply for an extension of stay in the U.S.
- change to a different non-immigrant status
- apply for an initial nonimmigrant status, for residents of Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI)
- request reinstatement to F-1 or M-1 student status

Persons seeking V nonimmigrant status or an extension of stay as a V nonimmigrant must also file the Form I-539 Supplement A, as part of their Form I-539. (These requirements are subject to revision at any time by USCIS.)

Specific Restrictions: Personally identifiable information. All records are protected from unauthorized access through appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards. The safeguards include designating user roles and restricting access to those with a need-to-know to perform their official duties.

This schedule applies to applications, petitions, and requests regardless of original submission method (including applications, petitions, and requests that are adjudicated via USCIS electronic systems). This schedule may cover future forms, including those with modified form names or numbers that serve a similar purpose.

This schedule does not apply to applications, petitions, and requests already placed in Alien Files (A-Files) or receipt files. This schedule may include future forms (of similar use) or form name modifications, unless noted on future forms.

Note: All documentation submitted or created in support of a USCIS application, petition, or request is maintained in accordance with USCIS policy and NARA retention schedules after being scanned into USCIS electronic systems. Submitted documentation may include, but is not limited:

- Applications, Petitions, or Requests
- Supporting Documentation
- Unrequested Documentation

Note: Records that are linked to national security, law enforcement, fraud, litigation holds, administrative investigations or actions, congressional inquiries or similar matters may be extended beyond the applicable retention period in five-year increments.

This schedule supports:

- The USCIS initiative to move from paper to electronic records in compliance with the media neutral guidance found in 36 CFR § 1225.24 and the E-Government Act of 2002.
