Background Information

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is the government agency that oversees lawful immigration to the United States. As part of its mission, USCIS provides a number of humanitarian programs and protection to assist individuals in need of relief from disasters, oppression, abuse and other urgent circumstances. These benefit requests provides immigration protection and eligibility for adjustment to lawful permanent resident status .

This schedule applies to benefit requests and their supporting forms and evidence, filed by or on behalf of individuals requesting humanitarian benefits. At the time of this scheduling, the following forms are included. This schedule may also cover future forms with modified form names or numbers that serve the same purpose.

- Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er) or Special Immigrant (when filed on behalf of an abused family member of a USC or LPR, or on behalf of a Special Immigrant Juvenile)
- Form I-914, Application for T Nonimmigrant Status
- Form I-914, Supplement A, Application for Family Member of T-1 Recipient and Supplement B, Declaration of law Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons
- Form I-918, Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status
- Form I-918, Supplement A, Petition for Qualifying Family Member of U-1 Recipient and Supplement B, U Nonimmigrant Status Certification
- Form I-929, Petition for Qualifying Family Member of a U-1 Nonimmigrant

These forms may collect basic information about the applicants, petitioners and family members, including, but not limited to:

- A-number
- Social Security Number
- Full name and any former names or aliases
- Current and former addresses
- Contact information
- Gender
- Marital status and history
- Date and place of birth
- Language, religion, ethnicity and nationality.
- Travel history, passport information and entries into the United States
- Educational, residential and employment history

Forms may also collect information regarding

- Interactions with the court system
- Adoption information
- Crimes committed against or by the Requestor
- Financial information

This schedule applies to applications, petitions, and requests regardless of original submission method, including applications, petitions, and requests that are adjudicated via USCIS online electronic systems. The humanitarian forms covered by this schedule are protected under 8 CFR 1367. This schedule does not apply to applications, petitions, and requests already placed in Alien Files (A-Files) prior to the approval of this schedule.

Note: All documentation submitted or created in support of a USCIS application, petition, or request is maintained in accordance with USCIS policy after being scanned into USCIS electronic systems. Submitted documentation may include, but is not limited to:

- Applications, Petitions, or Requests
- Supporting Documentation
- Unrequested Documentation

Note: Records that are linked to national security, law enforcement, fraud, litigation holds, administrative investigations or actions, congressional inquiries or similar matters may be extended beyond the applicable retention period in five-year increments.

This schedule supports the USCIS initiative to move from paper to electronic records in compliance with the media neutral guidance found in 36 CFR § 1225.24 and the E-Government Act of 2002.

Note: All temporary benefit forms used as evidence in adjudicating humanitarian benefits will take on the underlying retention of the humanitarian benefit.
