1.	CENTRAL INDEX SYSTEM Description: The Central Index System (CIS) is an internal DHS mission-critical electronic system that contains records which serve as a finding aid to agency case files. CIS assists DHS in enforcing the immigration laws of the United States by providing timely and accurate information about persons who are subject to those laws. The system interfaces with other DHS databases to provide comprehensive information necessary for DHS management. CIS also provides statistical information to DHS management to improve the efficiency of DHS operations. CIS supports both the immigration benefit granting and law enforcement functions. Categories of individuals covered by the system: Individuals covered by provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act of the United States (e.g. applicants for immigration benefits), including subjects of administrative inquiries (e.g. applicants, preparers, and representatives) and individuals of concern based on possible national security reasons or criminal activity. Program: National Security and Records Verification	NC1-85-79-3

(NSRV), Records Program and Policy Office, Electronic Records Branch

Applicability: DHS-wide and other Federal government agencies.

Specific Restrictions: CIS contains personally identifiable and law enforcement sensitive information. All records in CIS are protected from unauthorized access through appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards. The safeguards include restricting access to those with a need-to-know to perform their official duties, using permanent ID and password.

Vital Record: Yes.

Inputs

CIS receives data and/or interfaces with the following USOIS systems:

Computer-Linked Application Information Management System (CLAIMS), which updates CIS with data relating to naturalization for A-File numbers.

Employment Authorization Documentation System (EADS) provides the capability to update CIS with data relating to employment authorization documents along with a history of these documents.

Marriage Fraud Amendment System (MFAS) provides the capability to update CIS with data relating to marriage fraud.

National File Tracking System (NFTS) provides file transfer processing capabilities with the National Records Center. Data relating to file transfers are received on CIS and NFTS sites.

Refugee, Asylum, and Parole System (RAPS) provides the capability to update CIS with data relating to refugee asylum and parole cases.

Re-engineered Naturalization Application Casework System (RNACS) and Computer Linked Application Information Management System 4 (C4) provides the capability to send data from A-Number searches to RNACS/C4 and to subsequently update CIS with data relating to naturalization for those A-Numbers.

Electronic Document Management System (EDMS) allows the CIS system to mark the digitization flag by providing digitized A-Numbers to CIS. CIS sends EDMS metadata updates in CIS for all digitized files.

TEMPORARY. Delete when data has been copied into the master file or database and verified, or when no longer required to support reconstruction of, or serve as backup to, a master file or database, whichever is later.
