This schedule covers abandoned draft accounts and unsubmitted benefit request data, as well as any notifications to individuals before the account is deemed abandoned. Applicability: DHS-wide Specific Restrictions: Personally identifiable information. All records are protected from unauthorized access through appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards. The safeguards include restricting access to those with a need-to-know to perform their official duties using a permanent ID and password. Vital Record: No Specific Legal Requirements: 8 USC §§ 1103, et seq | | |
| | | | 10 ACTION TAKEN (NARA USE ONLY) |

1. Abandoned Draft Accounts: In order to create an account, applicants and petitioners are required to register on-line with USCIS. If these individuals do not complete account registration and/or use their accounts to submit a benefit request within 30 days of beginning the process, the account is considered abandoned and is deleted.

Unsubmitted Benefit Request Data: After account registration is successfully completed, applicants, petitioners, attorneys, accredited representatives and other third parties (preparers, individuals representing law firms, universities, non-profit organizations, etc.) may log into USCIS ELIS and draft a benefit request. If the benefit request is not submitted within 30 days of beginning the account registration/benefit submission process, the benefit request is considered abandoned and is deleted.

Records Included:

To register for a USCIS ELIS account, an individual must provide USCIS with the following information: valid e-mail address, password, challenge questions and answers, and telephone number (optional).
