Detention Management Division/ (ERO)

NARA #:

Detention Case Files contribute to efficient and responsible facility management by maintaining, for each person/detainee booked into a facility for more than 24 hours, a file of all significant information about that person

Unless otherwise noted, all disposition instructions are media neutral; they apply regardless of the media or format of the records.

1. Detention Case Files

File Plan: 111-601-001a

The file content is independent of and maintained separate from the detainee's Alien File and any detention files contained in the EID/ENFORCE system. The required content of the file includes the detainee summary/transfer form(s) and

- Alien Booking Record (I-385)
- Record of Search (G-1025)
- Photographs
- Fingerprint Cards
- Classification Work Sheet
- Personal Property Inventory Sheet
- Housing Identification Card
- Property Receipt (G-589) or facility equivalent
- Baggage Check(s) (I-77)

Additional forms may also be included in the file including orientation acknowledgment form, receipt of handbook, locker key, work assignment sheet, identifying marks form, the original detainee summary form, intake screening form, forms for special requests, disciplinary forms, grievances (except medical grievances which are maintained in the medical file), complaints and their resolution(s), privacy waivers, documentation of administrative segregation, and most forms and documents that are signed by the detainee. Close-out receipts for property and valuables and copies of release documents are added to the file upon the detainee's transfer, release or removal.

Disposition: TEMPORARY Cut-off upon detainee's transfer or release from the facility, or departure due to a removal order
Destroy 6 years after the file cut-off
