Routine correspondence - Communications from the public that require no response. These include write-in campaigns, repeat writers, personal opinions on current events or personal experiences, informational or reference literature, etc. These may be routine complaints, commendations or other correspondence and may include anonymous communications, such as suggestion box comments. They may also include public correspondence received in error or addressed to another entity and copied to DOJ. These do not include any communications for which a Component takes action. B.) Referred information. Includes the original correspondence and acknowledgement and/or transmittals of inquiries and requests that are referred elsewhere. NOTE: Individual components should determine as a matter of policy the level of acknowledgement/notice of referral that for component business needs constitutes a formal/required response and must be retained for the longer retention under item 2. DOJ Components must maintain records for the full 1 year retention unless they provide ORMP written policy/practice indicating a shorter retention within the allowable range for this item. Final Disposition Temporary Item Status Active Is this item media neutral? Disposition Authority Number DAA-0060-2014-0004-0002

Communications from the public that require a response, but no formal action. Includes original communication and copy of response for routine inquiries for information such as photographs, publications, comments, complaints or commendations for which a standard form or other general response is generated. These records lack substantive historical or evidential value and require no policy decisions or administrative actions. Any correspondence for which additional actions are taken should be incorporated into appropriate case files or related records series.
