Background Information

The Office of Tribal Justice ensures that the Department of Justice (DOJ) and its components work with Indian tribes on a government-to-government basis; ensures internal uniformity of DOJ policies and litigation positions relating to Indian country; and coordinates with other federal agencies and with state and local governments on their initiatives in Indian country.

The major functions of OTJ are to:

- Serve as the principal liaison for federally recognized tribal governments and tribal organizations;
- Facilitate the resolution of requests submitted to the Attorney General from tribal governments for the re-assumption of federal jurisdiction;
- Serve as the program and legal policy advisor to the Attorney General with respect to the treaty and trust relationship between the United States and Indian tribes;
- Coordinate DOJ's activities, policies, and positions relating to Indian tribes;
- Ensure that each component of DOJ has a documented, accountable process in place for consulting with Indian tribes;
- Ensure each consultation process is consistent with Executive Order 13175;
- Collaborate with federal and other government agencies to promote consistent, informed government-wide policies, operations, and initiatives related to Indian country.
- Serve as a clearinghouse for coordination with other federal agencies on the development of policy or federal litigation positions involving Indians and Indian tribes.
