Request for Records Disposition Authority

Intelligence materials: Intelligence materials compiled from multiple sources by the Office of Intelligence Policy (OIPR) and Review for the Counsel for Intelligence Policy.

Description: Each day, OIPR receives the FBI's Director's Briefing Book, situation reports and other intelligence materials and copies are distributed to within the Department of Justice (the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, the Assistant Attorney General for National Security, Counsel for Intelligence Policy, etc...) The OIPR Intelligence Research Specialist maintains the recordkeeping copy for the office. The distribution list is subject to change.

These records are arranged chronologically. Classification: TS/SCI.

1. OIPR Intelligence Research Specialist copy of OIPR Intelligence Materials

   A. Paper versions: Disposition: PERMANENT: If recordkeeping copy is paper, retire to offsite storage when two years old. Transfer to National Archives and Records Administration when 30 years old.

   B. Electronic versions: Disposition: PERMANENT. If recordkeeping copy is electronic, create preservation copy annually. Transfer to National Archives and Records Administration when 30 years old. Records will be transferred to NARA in accordance with 36 CFR 1228.270, or the applicable regulations, at the time of transfer.

2. All other copies

   Disposition: TEMPORARY. Destroy daily, or when no longer needed for reference purposes.

   NOTE: Portions of these records may be removed from the daily, distributed materials and incorporated into other records.
