Request for Records Disposition Authority

1. Case Files for Class 215 – Domestic Security. Files contain all case-related material including, but not limited to, correspondence, grand jury and trial subpoenas, pleadings, press releases, exhibits, court orders, appeal documents, investigative reports, and pre-sentence reports.

A. Cases litigated by the Department of Justice Criminal Division, Domestic Security Section. Files consist of materials related to cases litigated by the section either because of the importance of the case, or because a U.S. Attorney has recused himself or herself from the case.

Disposition: PERMANENT. Transfer to WNRC one year after close of case. Transfer to the National Archives in five-year blocks 30 years after close of case.

B. Copies of cases litigated by local U.S. Attorneys' offices. Files are used for oversight purposes, and consist of duplicate copies of official records which are maintained in the U.S. Attorney's office. Files are not maintained in any usable order.

Disposition: TEMPORARY. Transfer to WNRC as space requirements and frequency of use dictate. Destroy 10 years after close of case.

2. General Files for Class 215 – Domestic Security. General files are identified by standard sub-numbers (identifiable as "O" subs), each of which represents a definite category applicable to all classes. These sub-numbers may be used immediately after the standard primary class number, after the standard secondary district number, or in other combinations according to the rules of the particular classification. Files are arranged chronologically.

A. 04 Executive Orders and Presidential Proclamations
012 Policies and Procedures
016 Definitions and Interpretations
