Department of Justice: Justice Management Division: Government Accountability Office (GAO)
Final Reports Tracking System

The GAO Tracking System is maintained by the Justice Management Division's Management and Planning Staff, Audit Liaison Group (ALG) to track GAO final reports closed without recommendations and the implementation of GAO report recommendations directed at the agency. Reports and recommendations are tracked for progress until considered closed.

1. Inputs

Data for the system comes from copies of GAO correspondence which includes GAO Testimony and final reports.

Disposition: TEMPORARY, copies should be destroyed after data is entered and verified, or when no longer needed by agency, whichever is later.

2. Master File

Information captured includes 1) background information regarding the review (Jobcode, title, summary, requestors, contact information, review status, components involved in the review, etc.); 2) the text of the recommendations; 3) the status of the recommendation; and 4) closure dates.

Disposition: TEMPORARY, delete 8 years after report/recommendation closed.

3. Outputs

The system generates ad hoc reports of various types. These reports are used to inform Senior Department management, ALG Staff, Component Audit Liaisons and GAO officials of the status of ongoing reviews and the status of open recommendation implementation.

Disposition: TEMPORARY, destroy/delete when no longer needed for administrative use.

4. System Documentation

Disposition: TEMPORARY, delete 8 years after report/recommendation closed.
