	Audit Division Operational Tracking System (ADOT)  The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) was established in the U S Department of Justice on April 14, 1989 The OIG investigates alleged violations of criminal and civil laws, regulations, and ethical standards arising from the conduct of the Department's employees in their numerous and diverse activities The OIG provides leadership and assists management in promoting integrity, economy, efficiency, and effectiveness within the Department and its financial, contractual, and grant relationships with others  (SEE ATTACHED)

Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General
Audit Division
Audit Division Operational Tracking System (ADOT)

The Audit Division conducts, reports on, and tracks the resolution of financial and performance audits of organizations, programs, and functions within DOJ. Financial audits examine financial statements and financially related activities. Performance audits review economy, efficiency, and programmatic issues. The Audit Division also monitors expenditures made under DOJ contracts, grants and other agreements.

The Audit Division Operational Tracking System (ADOT) is a system used by Audit Headquarters and all regional audit offices to track the process of resolving and closing audit recommendations for both internal and external audits, and to assist in collecting data for the OIG's Semiannual Report to Congress. The system identifies each audit, each of an audit's recommendations, and the Audit Division's related correspondence with the auditee, and guides audit follow-up activities.

1. Inputs.

Description. The data is manually entered into the system by authorized personnel of the Audit Division from source documents including, but not limited to, draft audit reports, final audit reports, and audit correspondence.

2. Master File.

Description. The Master File includes the following information: audit information such as audit report number, audit title, final issued, audit type, office, and auditee; recommendation status information such as recommendation number, agency, status, date resolved, and date closed; and correspondence tracking information such as memo date, action description, agency, and comments.

Disposition: PERMANENT. Cut off at the end of the fiscal year in which all recommendations resulting from an audit are closed. Transfer the official record copy to the National Archives 15 years after cutoff. according to the standards of 36 CFR 1228.270 or the applicable regulations at the time of transfer (per discussion w/ agency records officer 6/29/10)

3. Output.

Description. Ad hoc reports are generated from the ADOT system on an as-needed basis.

Disposition: TEMPORARY. Destroy/delete when no longer needed. ARS 20.5, 20.4

4. System Documentation.

Disposition: PERMANENT. Transfer to National Archives with the initial transfer of the Master File and then subsequently with every change made to the documentation.
