	DEBT COLLECTION MANAGEMENT The Federal Debt Recovery Act of 1986 (31 USC 3718(b)), authorizes the Attorney General to contract with private counsel to assist the U.S. Attorneys in collecting consumer and commercial debts owed the United States. Under contract, a company from the private sector shall establish and operate a Central Intake Facility (CIF) to provide administrative management of the debt recovery program. Client agencies (e.g., Dept. of Education, Small Business Administration, etc.) and participating U.S. Attorneys will send debt recovery cases to the CIF for assignment. The CIF serves as an automated support data base for debt collection litigation as well as a data base from which to generate the statistics necessary to reconcile Department and client agency records, manage the private counsel portfolio, and report on the effectiveness of using the private counsel. Upon expiration of the contracts, cases and accounts will be returned to the Department. The CIF will provide a copy of the CIF data base on magnetic tape to the Department and shall erase all data gathered in the course of this contract from its computer data base.	All changes to this proposed schedule have been approved by [Signature] date 9/27/89 NARA Appraiser	Bernard W.
