OCAHO Case Files

The OCAHO is responsible for the adjudication of cases arising under Section 101 (employers sanctions) and Section 102 (unfair immigration related employment practices) of the Immigration Reform & Control Act. Judicial proceedings are initiated by complaints filed with OCAHO and assigned to Administrative Law Judges (ALJs). The Chief Administrative Hearing Officer may take final agency action with respect to cases decided by ALJs under Section 101 and will certify ALJs who hear Section 102 cases. Disposition of a case is made final upon agency action unless an appeal is filed to the appropriate Circuit Court within 45 days (101 cases) or 60 days (102 cases) of the final agency decision. If appealed to the Circuit Court, an appeal can be filed to the Supreme Court within 90 days of the final Circuit Court decision.

- Case files consist of the complaint, notice of hearing and prehearing conference, lists of witnesses and exhibits, motions, decision order by the ALJ, final order and other documentation. Estimated annual volume: six cubic feet.

DISPOSITION: Transfer to the WNRC in six month blocks, six months after final disposition of the case. Destroy five years after final disposition of the case.
