Automated Case Management Systems (RG 60 Executive Office for United States Attorneys)

The mission of the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (EOUSA) is to provide the 93 United States Attorneys general executive assistance and supervision; operational support; administrative management direction and oversight; and to assist in the coordination with other components of the Department of Justice and other federal agencies. To assist in its mission, the EOUSA has developed and maintained automated case management systems, i.e. databases, that collect information from the 93 United States Attorneys offices (USAOs) regarding criminal and civil matters; cases and appeals; debt collection matters; and personnel resources. This data is used primarily to justify budget requests, allocate resources among USAO offices, and produce management reports. The data is compiled into an Annual Statistical Report at the end of each fiscal year. The information is also used to produce numerous periodical and ad-hoc reports for the Attorney General, the Office of Management and Budget, the General Accounting Office, Congress, and various federal agencies and private sector organizations.

The current EOUSA automated case management systems include three systems that extract preselected data from the USAO's automated case management systems. The USAO systems are essentially tracking systems that generally note basic case related information such as charges, statutes, and sentencing, and administrative matters such as names, contact information, and addresses, which are taken from the official case file and inserted into the USAO database.

The first EOUSA automated case management system is the Central System. The Central System extracts preselected data from the USAOs automated case management system called LIONS (Legal Information Office Network System). The second EOUSA automated case management system is called TIGAS (Transactional Information Government Accounting System), which extracts preselected data from the USAOs automated case management system called TALON (Tracking Assistance for the Legal Office Network). The TIGAS and TALON systems contain records pertaining to debt collection matters. The third EOUSA automated case management system is called EOUSA-5, which extracts preselected data from the USAO USA-5 system. The EOUSA-5 and USA-5 systems contain records pertaining to personnel resource allocations.

On a monthly basis the USAOs extract and transfer preselected portions of their case management systems to the Case Management Staff of the EOUSA. The EOUSA utilizes the monthly extract of data from the USAOs to create the EOUSA automated case management system Masterfiles. The EOUSA automated case management systems are updated monthly during the fiscal year upon receipt of the USAO data.

This schedule applies to EOUSAs Central System, TIGAS, and EOUSA-5 systems and to future systems that may supersede or complement these systems with a similar purpose and function.
