	RECORDS OF THE CIVIL DIVISION, CLASSIFICATION AND DATA UNITS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE Docket and index cards prepared by the Civil Division (CIV) Classification and Data Units of the Department of Justice (DOJ). These cards show the DOJ file number, the name(s) of the parties involved, the nature or type of claim, the attorney assigned to the case, the content of the document (when required), the district court, the amount at issue, the civil action number and the CIV component to which the case was assigned. These cards are arranged numerically by the DOJ file number and alphabetically by the name of the subject. These cards are used as finding aids to locate docketing information relating to a person or subject matter. Monthly Reports and Reporting Sheets created to provide statistical data relating to administrative case litigation information. These reports were discontinued in 1977. They are now prepared on an annual basis. These files were maintained by fiscal year in binders.		21 items
