	Record of Proceedings Cases The Executive Office for Immigration Review, Office of the Chief Immigration Judge (OCIJ), was established to consolidate the management, direction and control of fifty-six Immigration Judges in twenty-five field offices throughout the United States and territories. These field offices are responsible for conducting hearings in deportation and exclusion cases to resolve various immigration matters. All information and documents submitted during hearings are entered into the record of proceedings case file which is the official record of the hearing. Prior to the creation of the OCIJ, records of proceedings were integrated into the "A" file of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, which is a 75 year record. No mandatory time frame exists for the adjudication of benefits/relief from immigration proceedings, therefore a record of proceedings of a previously completed case could be needed to process a current application.		1 item
