	Request for Destruction Authority for two closed case files 29J-BF-32354 29C-MP-56276 The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has received two Federal Pre-Trial Diversion Program (FPDP) court orders, which mandate the removal of records related to the subjects of the court orders from the FBI's central records system Each case file pertains exclusively to the individual, who is the subject of the FPDP court order. However, these cases may meet the criteria for permanent retention, if they are part of a systematic informational sample for file classification 29. However, NARA has not yet determined the statistical sampling criteria for Universal Case File Number (UCFN) cases opened in classification 29. Additionally, file classification 29 cases not meeting the criteria for permanent retention may be destroyed when twenty years old. Neither case has been closed for twenty years. Therefore, the FBI requests disposition authority to destroy these cases in order to comply with the FPDP DISPOSITION Destroy immediately
