	A. Strategic Information and Operations Center (SIOC) Daily Log: The SIOC Daily Log contains summaries of urgent reports as well as administrative records related to the operation of the SIOC. Urgent reports are communications sent from field offices and legal attaches (legats) to headquarters to ensure that executive management maintains adequate situational awareness. Reports may include information on: terrorist incidents, major crimes, transportation incidents, crimes or threats involving public figures, allegations of employee misconduct, shootings involving FBI or Task Force members, missing children, and other events or incidents, which may generate calls to the Director. The log also includes administrative records such as status updates on SIOC on-duty personnel and the travel status of personnel in legal attaches (legats). Also included are summaries of information received from other government agencies, results of routine database queries performed by SIOC personnel, and other operational information. 1. Inputs: The primary source records are urgent reports, which are sent to the SIOC by field offices and legats. Inputs also include National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) bulletins, query results from database searches, and other administrative and operational information. a. Originating Organization's Copy of the Urgent Report: Disposition: File in the related case file. Retain/destroy commensurate with the retention period approved for that file classification. b. Urgent Reports received by SIOC: Disposition: Temporary. Cutoff at the end of the calendar year. Delete/destroy when three years old. c. NCMEC bulletins: Disposition: Temporary. Destroy upon missing child's recovery or thirty days after receipt, whichever is sooner.
