| 1. | Pen Register Tapes. Pen Register tapes maintained by field offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are the product of a mechanical device which records the numbers dialed on a telephone, but does not overhear oral communications and does not indicate whether calls are actually completed. Telephone numbers germane to law enforcement activity are identified and incorporated into official documents for the investigative case files, after which the tapes have no investigative or administrative value. Pen Register tapes are authorized under Rules 41 and 57(b), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures, and under the provisions of Title III of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968. Annual growth is estimated at 18 cubic feet for a large office, with a backlog of 120 cubic feet. A. Pen Register tapes authorized under the provisions of Title III and retained for 10 years. Final disposition to be authorized by an appropriate U. S. Attorney or U. S. district court judge. B. Remaining tapes. DESTROY when administrative needs have expired. | | | |
