	Files and related material maintained at the U.S. Attorney's office for the Central District of California, which relate to a fraud against the Government investigation based on erroneous information initially furnished to the U.S. Attorney and detected as a result of a Freedom of Information Act request. Continued maintenance of these records would conflict with the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(1) and (5).
