GENERAL AGENCY MISSION

UNICOR is the legal trade name for the Federal Prison Industries (FPI), a wholly-owned; Government corporation established by Congress on June 23, 1934. Its mission is to employ and provide job skills training to the greatest practicable number of inmates confined within the Federal Bureau of Prisons, contribute to the safety and security of our Nation's Federal correctional facilities by keeping inmates constructively occupied, produce market-priced quality goods and services for sale to the Federal Government; operate in a self-sustaining manner; and minimize FPI's impact on private business and labor

PRODUCT SUPPORT CENTER (PSC)

The Product Support Center (PSC) provides development, testing, cost analysis and technical training for UNICOR/FPI manufacturing. Although physically located at the Federal Correctional Institute in Englewood, CO, it is a component of UNICOR's Quality, Engineering and Operational Support Branch. PSC assists all major manufacturing areas such as clothing, textiles, office furniture, industrial products, and electronics. The Center is also involved in all new product development, including the analysis of manufacturing feasibility in a correctional setting. Product testing is carried out to ensure conformity to Federal, industrial and military standards, as well as compliance with environmental regulations. PSC staff also assists with new product implementation, work flow and efficiency studies at factory sites.
