U.S. Department of Labor
Employee Benefits Security Administration
Office of Enforcement
Records Retention Schedule

The Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA); formally known as the Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration (PWBA), provides for the administration and enforcement of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), approved September 2, 1974 (88 Stat.829, U S C. 1001 note) The Act is administered by the Department of Labor and Treasury, and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation and protects the integrity of pensions, health plans, and other employee benefits for more than 150 million Americans covered by more than 679,000 private retirement plans, 2 5 million health plans and similar numbers of other welfare benefit plans The Welfare and Pension Plans Disclosure Act (WPPDA) and its reporting provisions, were repealed by the ERISA on January 1, 1975

The Office of Enforcement promotes the protection of pension and welfare benefits under ERISA by ensuring a strong and effective national and field office enforcement program through policy formulation, project identification and program planning; guidance development and implementation; field liaison; and field and project evaluation Investigations to detect and correct violations of Title I of ERISA and related criminal laws are conducted by the investigative staff in EBSA's field offices.

The Office of Enforcement is composed of the Division of Field Operations, which coordinates national civil enforcement policy with EBSA field offices and various governmental agencies; the Division of Enforcement Support, which oversees national targeting efforts and provides technical and administrative assistance to EBSA field offices, and the Deputy Director for Criminal Enforcement, who coordinates national criminal enforcement policy with EBSA field offices and with other governmental agencies such as the Department of Justice
