The Employees' Compensation Appeals Board (ECAB) was created in 1946, in the Federal Security Agency in pursuance of Reorganization Plan No. 2, effective July 16, 1946. Reorganization Plan No.9, effective May 24, 1950, transferred the Board and its functions to the Department of Labor.

ECAB is a quasi-judicial appellate body with exclusive jurisdiction to consider and decide appeals of Federal employees from final decisions of the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) in claims arising under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act, which is administered by OWCP. The Board reviews issues on disputed questions of fact, law, and the abuse of or failure to exercise discretion. The Board's decisions in cases, decided on their merits, affirm, reverse, or modify the awards and determinations, and/or remand the cases for further development of the evidence or other appropriate actions. The Board's decisions are final and are not subject to judicial review by another agency.

This records schedule supersedes all other records schedules of the ECAB, and is to be used in conjunction with the General Records Schedule (GRS).
