Special Envoy for Middle East Regional Security (S/SEMERS)

Records of the Special Envoy for Middle East Regional Security – General James L. Jones, December 2007 to April 2009

The mission of the Special Envoy was to advance the President's and the Secretary's objective of resolving the Israeli-Palestinian dispute. This task involved planning and consulting with the parties on security issues. Specifically, to review, analyze, and recommend ways to: assist in strengthening Palestinian security institutions and capabilities; foster Israeli-Palestinian cooperation on security issues; engage immediate neighbors (e.g. Egypt and Jordan) and other key countries on enhancing Israeli-Palestinian and regional security; and shape U.S. ideas and approaches on a security concept for peace negotiations. Files contain such things as policy papers, strategic plans, discussion files, briefing books and reports, Summary Reports to Secretary of State, trip reports, agreements, cables, emails, memoranda, and intelligence reference books. The files also include those of the SEMERS Staff Director and staff members from posts in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv. Files are arranged by subject and cover the period December 2007 to April 2009.
