Continuation Pages SF-115 for Records of Special Envoys and Special Representatives

Item 1. Records of Special Envoys and Special Representatives

The mission of a Special Envoy and Special Representative is to serve for a particular purpose, such as the conduct of special negotiations and/or attendance at world events such as coronations, inaugurations, and other state ceremonies of special importance. The designation is temporary and the Special Envoy or Special Representative advances the President's and the Secretary's foreign policy objectives. The tasks usually involve planning and consulting with the parties on a particular issue and to specifically review, analyze, and recommend ways to accomplish a particular objective. Files contain documents, policy papers, strategic plans, discussion files, briefing books and reports, Summary Reports to Secretary of State, trip reports, agreements, cables, emails, memoranda, and intelligence reference books. The files also include those of the Staff Director and staff members domestically and from posts overseas. Files are arranged by subject and cover the duration of the mission of the Special Envoy. The period covered is specified in the retirement documents.

Disposition: PERMANENT. Cutoff at the conclusion of the envoy's or representative's activities and retire to RSC for transfer to the WNRC. Transfer to the National Archives when 25 years old.
