2. Schedules of Daily Activities -

Calendars, appointment books, schedules, logs, and other records documenting meetings, appointments, telephone calls, trips, visits, and other activities by the Director of USIA and his/her special assistants, executive assistants, staff assistants, confidential assistants, etc., while serving in an official capacity. Materials determined to be "personal records" are not covered by this item.

- a. Records containing substantive information the substance of which has not been incorporated into memoranda, reports, correspondence, or other official records.

DISPOSITION: PERMANENT. Cut off at the end of the calendar year. Transfer to WNRC immediately. Transfer to NARA when 25 years old in 5-year blocks.

Volume on hand: 16 cubic feet
Annual Accumulation: 2 cubic

- b. Records containing routine non-substantive information such as simple lists of dates, times, and name or place of appointments.

DISPOSITION: Destroy at end of incumbency.

3. Chronological Files -

Extra copies of communications, correspondence, and other documents arranged in order of occurrence either alphabetically or by post, division, or other method, and used as a general reading or reference file.

DISPOSITION: Destroy when purpose has been served (usually one year). The Secretariat Staff maintains the official chronological files for the extended Office of the Director and that series is PERMANENT.

4.8.

Public Affairs Contact System -

This is an electronic system of records storing biographic data, telephone numbers, substantive interests in foreign policy, participation in USIA programs overseas and formal and informal events in US. The system contains U.S. private sector leaders; key overseas contacts (non-Americans); legislative and executive branch personnel who deal with USIA and US foreign policy; private citizens and corporations interested in USIA and American public diplomacy; and US businessmen overseas.

Information is made available on a need-to-know basis to personnel of USIA as may be required in the performance of their official duties. This system is utilized by the Director, Deputy Director and their staffs.

DISPOSITION: Destroy when no longer needed.
