7. ITEM NO.	8. DESCRIPTION OF ITEM (WITH INCLUSIVE DATES OR RETENTION PERIODS)	9. SAMPLE OR JOB NO.	10. ACTION TAKEN
	Some operating and staff units follow the practice of posting statistics and facts pertaining to a given company, commodity, process, mine, or some other unit of the industry on summary cards. For instance, in one case the cards are arranged alphabetically by the names of the mines and they give a complete history of each mine including the names of all owners, content and production of each mine. In another case the technologic history of processes and certain mineral commodities is collected by pasting clippings, or by transcribing abstracts from professional journal and other sources on cards. (Formerly Item 11 II-NNA-772)
6a.	Legislative Files - All copies break file every calendar year. Dispose after 4 years (except that material passed into law which deals specifically with the Bureau). Copies of proposed and passed legislation and other authoritative directives of interest to the Bureau with related memoranda, correspondence, and reports prepared in the Bureau. Bills which are enacted into Public law are transferred to another category for permanent retention (See Item 6b). A similar legislative file is maintained for the Department in the Office of the Secretary, which will adequately serve the historical and legal needs of the Bureau after the period specified. (Formerly Item 10 II-NNA-772)
6b.	Official Washington Office legislation file concerning Public Laws affecting the Bureau. (Related correspondence and other back-up material, are included. This file consists of material transferred from the file described in Item 6a. above.) Transfer to Records Center when no longer needed for current business. PERMANENT.
7.	Technical Assistance Program Papers - Break file every calendar year. Transfer to FRC after three years. Dispose after 10 years. The Bureau of Mines cooperates with and assists several agencies including the Atomic Energy Commission, GSA, and others responsible for the development and procurement of defense materials. Most of the papers documenting the work performed by the Bureau for these agencies are returned to the initiating agency, the Bureau keeping only copies of memoranda,
