	BUREAU OF RECLAMATION Electronic Time and Attendance System (ETAS) E-TAS is a web-based time and attendance system providing automated employee data entry to record daily time, flexitime and leave information into the individuals payroll file. The system includes employee information, and time and attendance data including pay codes, account structures, pay tracking and coding information, and leave information. Source data for E-TAS includes Federal Personal and Payroll System (FPPS) data, Federal Financial System (FFS) data, and employee time, attendance, and leave information (either paper or electronic based). Employee personnel information is imported from FPPS. Reclamation employees enter individual T&A and Leave information and the file is interfaced through FPPS which performs any edits and processes the payroll information for funds disbursement. Note: The DOI-National Business Center (NBC) is the responsible agency for non-current payroll files.
