1	RECORDS OF THE PANAMA CANAL COMMISSION METEOROLOGICAL AND HYDROGRAPHIC RECORDS (SYSTEMS) METEOROLOGY RECORDS Climatology Data System. Real-time hourly data on wind speed and direction, air temperature, relative humidity, dew point, barometric pressure, and solar radiation electronically transmitted from four weather stations via VHF radio to a central data collection microcomputer for error checking and plotting. Data is then downloaded to an ASCII file for printing, distribution, and archival storage via the mainframe computer. The data in the system is used for flood control and to provide historical climatological information to PCC operating divisions.
