Commercial maps, tracings and photostatic copies of printed and manuscript maps, and engineering plans concerning the construction of the Panama Canal produced by both the French and American canal companies. A portion of the items are listed in the Subject Catalog of the Special Panama Collection of the Canal Zone Library-Museum (G.K. Hall: Boston). Although not all of the maps and plans are Federal records, each item has been captured on 105 mm microfilm by the Canal Commission. A complete set consisting of 462 safety-base permanent record film negatives with corresponding copies of indexes has been supplied to NARS.

   NOTE: This disposition request relates only to that portion of the maps and engineering plans which are Federal records.

   DISPOSITION: Disposable for the purpose of donation to the Library of Congress in accordance with FPMR 101-11.406-9 (C).
