Background:

Section 6103(l)(7)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) authorizes the disclosure of tax return information with respect to unearned income to Federal, State and local agencies administering certain Federally-assisted benefit programs under the Social Security Act, the Food Stamp Act of 1977, Title 38 of the United States Code, or certain Housing Assistance Programs for the purpose of determining eligibility for, or the correct amount of, benefits under these programs.

The tax return information is extracted from the Wage and Information Returns (IRP) File - Treasury/IRS 22.061, hereafter referred to as the Information Returns Master File (IRMF) for the current tax year. This file contains information returns filed by payers of income such as dividends, interest and retirement income as reported on Forms 1099-DIV, 1099-INT and 1099-R, respectively. The information is extracted on a monthly basis using identifying information on magnetic media submitted by the requester. The tax return information is copied onto magnetic media. The program(s) to extract the information from the IRMF has been operational since July 1, 1985. Return information for Tax Year is available July through June.

Disclosure of Information to Federal, State and Local Agencies (DIFSLA) matching and extract program was developed pursuant to IRC §6103(l)(7) and IRC 6103(l)(7)(B) and includes Federal and State agencies authorized to participate in the program. While all agencies are not currently active, acknowledgment of their authorization enables resumption in the program with minimal effort. IRS provides these agencies with income information for use in determining benefit program eligibility.

DIFSLA allows participating Federal, State, and Local Agencies to request data for use in public assistance programs. Agencies submit Social Security Number (SSN) which are validated against the DM-1 National Account Profile (NAP) file and matched against the Information Returns Master File Processing System (IRMF) documents. Matches showing unearned-income are extracted.

Disclosure of Information to Federal, States, and Local Agencies (DIFSLA)
