RECOMMENDATION TO THE ARCHIVIST ON RECORDS
DISPOSITION REQUEST

SUMMARY
This job consists of seven records series of the Comptroller of the Currency, all created as part of the bank liquidation process. Item 1, Receivers’ Commissions, 1877-1934, contains 12 bound volumes of printed certificates with appropriately placed blank spaces used to record the appointment of receivers to oversee the liquidation of particular banks. Item 2, Receivers’ Successor Commissions, 1897-1966, is similar to Item 1 above except that these certificates record the appointment of successors to the first receivers appointed. Item 4, Floating Dividend Check Accounts, 1929-1967, consisting of 5 volumes arranged alphabetically by city and then by individual bank, is a list of payouts of dividends from failed banks, most failures date from the 1930s. Item 5, Unclaimed Dividends, is similar in nature to Item 4 above. It is a record of dividends for which first attempts of delivery failed; subsequent efforts succeeded. Item 6, Other Floating Dividends, is similar to Items 4 and 5 above and likewise lacks archival value. Item 7, Bond registers, consists of registers, dating from the late 1890’s to the mid 1930’s, are arranged chronologically and record U.S. government bonds and their aggregate amounts turned in by banks for redemption. All these records are routine and facilitative in nature, lacking historical and archival value. I recommend approval of this job.
