<td>1.</td>
<td>Original War Department Civilian Pay Vouchers, 1919-1920, located in the &quot;W&quot; Series (66-A-130) and &quot;AED&quot; Series (66-A-122) of settlement accounts at the Washington National Records Center. Disposition: Destroy Immediately. These War Department civilian pay vouchers are now scheduled for disposal after 56 years, pursuant to Disposal Job No. II-NHA-224, item 2. This schedule will authorize their disposal one to two years prior to the expiration of this retention period. This action is taken because the settlement accounts of which the civilian pay vouchers are part are to be screened for military final pay vouchers, and it would be in the interest of efficiency and space-saving to dispose of them during the screening operation. Their early disposal will result in no serious problems in documenting Government service. This is confirmed by Mr. Lee Gary, Assistant Director, National Personnel Records Center, GSA, and by Mrs. Kathy Holmann, Agency Liaison, and Mr. Berton Braley, Division of Retirement Insurance and Occupational Health, of the Civil Service Commission.</td>
