1.	Located at the National Personnel Records Center (Civilian), St. Louis, Missouri, are GAO Disbursing Officers' Settlement Accounts relating to the pay of Military (Regular Army, Army Air Force, Army Reserve, and National Guard) and Civilian Personnel of the Department of War, latter the Department of the Army. The accounts are arranged by settlement account numbers; cover the time period of approximately 1935 through 1953; and total around 95,000 cubic feet in volume. These accounts are to be screened in order to remove from them Final Military Pay Vouchers, which are to be computerized and used in the reconstruction of military service records lost in the 1973 Center fire. In connection with the screening, certain changes are proposed in the 56 year retention period that normally governs the disposition of such settlement accounts. These changes in disposition are presented below.				II-NNA-224, Item 2.
	a. Original Military Final Pay Vouchers.
	Disposition: Destroy when no longer needed in connection with the reconstruction of military service records. (This disposition will be applicable only to those vouchers not used in reconstruction work. Those
