1.	Legislative History Files. Arranged chronologically by Congress and thereunder numerically by public law number. Materials relating to the legislative history of bills passed by Congress. From 1921-30, only legislation related to GAO was included. Beginning in 1931, histories of all enacted laws were compiled. The materials in each history are divided into three groups: Congressional Materials : various drafts of the bill, committee reports, excerpts from the Congressional Record, slip laws, House and Senate documents, clippings from the House daily calendar and from the calendars of Senate and House committees, and other similar materials. This segment is further divided into three groups: materials relating to the enacted bill, materials from the same Congress related to similar bills, and materials from previous Congresses related to similar bills. GAO Materials: correspondence with Congressional committees, executive branch agencies, and private interest groups, internal memoranda, newspaper clippings,

	Comptroller General decisions, and reports on legislation prepared by GAO and other agencies. Printed hearings which are too bulky to be included in the Congressional materials segment described above. (a) Original paper records. TEMPORARY. Ascertain that the microform copies are adequate substitutes. Transfer to the GAO law library in two year accumulations. Destroy when the General Counsel has determined that all administrative needs for the records have ended. (b) Microform copies. PERMANENT. Transfer original silver negative and one diazo copy to the National Archives at the end of each fiscal year when microfiche has been verified. Maintain silver negative and two diazo copies at GAO in adequate storage facilities. This certifies that the records described on this form will be microfilmed in accordance with the standards set forth in 41 CFR 101-11.506.		1.0 cubic feet per year (.75 cf silver negative and .25 cf diazo)
2	Machine Readable Data Base--This magnetic tape file is a cumulative listing of the microfiched legislative histories of public laws of the United States. The file contains the public law numbers, the title derived from the statutes at large, indicators to cross-reference laws which are amended by other laws or which amend other laws and a listing of the number of fiche and number of pages in each of the three categories of fiche (Congressional, GAO, and Hearing). The file is used for inventory control of the microfiche and production of photocomposed catalogs which indicate the relationships of the elements entered in the data base. It is anticipated that the magnetic tape will be used as an interface for automatic retrieval of the microfiche. PERMANENT Transfer 2 copies of the magnetic tape and input documentation to the National Archives at the end of each fiscal year along with the microfiche. Maintain 2 copies at GAO in adequate storage facilities.
