1	The following records were sent to NMFJ inadvertently with another accession of records. NARS does not wish to accession these records, and requests immediate disposal of them:  Records relating to Bureau of the Budget Circulars (1921-6). Records pertain to circular letters sent by the Bureau of the Budget to all Executive departments for information on various topics such as budget estimates, the relief of private individuals, subsistence and travel of Government employees, establishment and use of standard forms, and the reorganization of Government departments. Included are a copy of the circular letter, work papers, memos, reports, and an index.  DESTROY IMMEDIATELY
2	Court of Claims Case Files (1920-8). Records consist of case files of claims against the Government which were filed in the US Court of Claims. These cases were appealed to the Court after the claims were rejected by the Comptroller of the Currency or the Comptroller General. Files include correspondence received and copies of letters sent, departmental memos, working papers and drafts, duplicate copies of motions and briefs, and copies of the Court's
