Item 1b was superseded by N1-483-09-002 item 1b.

The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) regulated Federal and State-chartered savings institutions. Created by the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989 (FIRREA), the OTS replaced the Federal Home Loan Bank Board as the primary regulator of federal- and state-chartered savings and loan institutions belonging to the Savings Association Insurance Fund (SAIF).

Section 312 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act mandated merger of OTS with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC), the Federal Reserve Board, and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) as of 21 July 2011. The OTS ceased to exist on 19 October 2011.

DESCRIPTION OF ITEM

This computerized system is used to log the incoming mail addressed to the Director of the Office of Thrift Supervision (Controlled Correspondence) which requires a response. The Director's correspondence files are contained on the records retention schedule for Congressional Affairs.

1. Correspondence Tracking Data Base

This system tracks the response process for Controlled Correspondence. This includes: 1) all correspondence addressed to the Director; 2) referrals from the White House or the Executive Office of the President; 3) correspondence from the U.S. Department of Treasury; and 4) correspondence from members of Congress or their staffs. It maintains information on the date the letter was received, the name of the requester, the office responsible for the response, and other pertinent information. The data base is updated daily as the mail is processed. This system functions as a finding aid to the correspondence files of Congressional Affairs.

DISPOSITION:

At the time of transfer, the OTS will notify the National Archives of the continued existence of the Congressional Correspondence electronic data.
