Schedule Subject Low Altitude Authorization and Notification Capability (LAANC)

Internal agency concurrences will be provided No

Background Information LAANC is an enterprise capability that automates the process for sUAS operators to request authorization from the FAA to fly in controlled airspace and for the FAA to approve or deny those authorization requests.

Individual members who wish to fly small Unmanned Aircraft Systems (sUAS) weighing less than 55 pounds in controlled airspace (Class B, Class C, Class D, or within the lateral boundaries of the surface area of Class E airspace designated for an airport) must request and receive prior authorization from the FAA prior to conducting the flight operations. These individuals are divided into two general groups: (1) limited recreational operators as described in 49 U.S.C. § 44809 and (2) sUAS operators as described in 14 C.F.R. part 107. Anyone who wishes to fly a sUAS is covered by either § 44809 or part 107.
